RENEAU REUNION EVENTS

Silent Auction! Bring Reneau related or other items to auction off to help with expenses.

Chateau Lafayette Reneau Wines will be auctioned this year, donated by Dick Reno, Chateau Lafayette Reneau.

Guest Speaker! We are fortunate to have a guest speaker at the Reunion! Dr. Jack J. Early, president of the Huguenot Society of Kentucky will speak about the Huguenots and also the Founders of the Manakin in the Colony of Virginia. In the 16-1700's large numbers of French Protestants (Huguenots) migrated to British North America. Our Reneau ancestors were among them!

Raffle! We will hold a raffle for a beautiful 14K gold Huguenot Cross pendant. See more about this in our special Reunion Reneau Review next month!

Exchange information and share photos! A great time to see how you are connected to other Reneaus!

Thank you... to the following Reneau Descendants who contributed funds to the Reneau Review the last three months: Margaret Reneau Day, Tehuacana, TX; Charles Reneau, Russell, KY; Katherine Moore, Fresno, CA; Kathy Nightingale, Ponte Vedra FL; Karen Slatton, Hemit CA; and Erma Thomason, Dallas, TX.

Margaret Reneau Day, Charles Reneau, Katherine Moore, Kathy Nightingale, and Erma Thomason are all Reneau descendants through Isaac Tipton Reneau's children; Margaret, Katherine and Kathy are descended from Joseph Wickliffe Reneau; Charles is descended from John Mulky Reneau; Erma Thomason is descended from Barton Warren Stone Reneau. Karen is a Reneau descendent through Jonathan Mulkey Reneau's daughter, Isabelle Reneau Compton.

To put these relationships all in perspective, Isaac Tipton Reneau and Jonathan Mulkey Reneau were brothers and grandsons of Charles Reno/Reneau. John David Reno was a brother of Charles Reno/Reneau.

It is through generous donations and the $5.00 subscriptions that we are able to continue the Newsletter!

WE Salute you...

John Dale Mote, born April 6, 1956 in Pampa TX, joined the US Army in 1973, and was sent to Fort Leonardwood, MO for Basic Training and to Fort Gordon, GA for advanced individual training in communications. For the rest of his enlistment he was stationed at Fort Hood, TX with the 2nd Armoured Div. where he was in Post Communications. John served in the military for 3 years.

Since getting out of the Service, John has worked mostly in the construction business. In 2003, John was ordained as a Minister of the Gospel, and lives in Fort Worth, TX. John is a father and a grandfather. His daughter Michelle is married to Richard Winsett, and they have two children: Elissa and Kailee. John's son, Jason and his wife, Bonnie, have two children: Adrianna and Brandon.

John's Reneau lineage is: Dorothy Reneau Mote, Rex Raymond Reneau, Eugene LaRue, Barton Warren Stone, Issaac Tipton, John, Charles Reneau/Reno, John Reno, Lewis Jr., Lewis Sr.

Isaac Alexander Reneau Rodriguez, of San Antonio, TX. Isaac joined the US Army last year at age 17, with his father, Arthur Rodriguez's permission. Isaac's father is retired from the US Army, and his grandfather, William Norris Reneau is retired from the US Coast Guard.

Isaac was sent to New Jersey to train, and he entered as a surveyor. He told his mother, Julienne Reneau Rodriguez that he was already used to the Army life since he was in ROTC in High School. Isaac was also a member of a Naval Cadet's group during that time.

After training Isaac will be assigned to Korea, and on his way plans to visit with family in San Antonio, TX. Isaac's sister, Julie Ann Rodriguez, and brother, David Jacob Rodriguez are especially looking forward to seeing him! We wish Isaac the best during his tour in Korea.

Youth News

Congratulations to Germaine Reneau, who is in the 9th grade at Clinton County High School in Albany, KY. Germaine made the honors list in the first semester. She is also a member of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad. With great grades and her extra activities, Germaine is a busy student! Germaine is the daughter of Danny Reneau of Albany, KY. Her Reneau lineage is:

Danny Reneau, Eartle, Granville Artie, Evans Alexander, William T., John, Charles Reno/Reneau, John Reno, Lewis Jr., Lewis Sr.

The 2005-2006 Clinton County Bull Dogs Basketball Team in Albany, KY is looking to make some waves this year, with goals set to play in the post season playoffs! A key member of the Dogs is Tyler Reneau, who is a returning senior. It was noted in the Clinton County News (November 17, 2005) that: "Tyler is one of the strongest and hardest workers on the team. He is an excellent defensive player who is relentless on both the offensive and defensive boards." Tyler is the son of Bobby Ruel Reneau of Albany. His Reneau heritage is: Bobby Reneau, Luther Ozell, Granville Artie, Evans Alexander, William T., John, Charles Reno/Reneau, John Reno, Lewis Jr., Lewis Sr.

Good luck to Tyler and the BullDogs this season!

On the Move...

May Sparks Comfort has had a busy 2005! May, a descendent of John Mulkey Reneau, sold her home in Carlsbad, CA and moved to San Diego, CA to be near her daughter, Susan and husband, Tony. It has given May and Susan the opportunity to do some traveling to visit relatives. Also, May and her "Westie," Heather (pictured above) flew to Seattle for the 2004 Christmas Holiday, where her son Charles lives. The photo shows May and Heather in the beautiful Cascade Mountains, where it snowed all Christmas day.

May's Reneau lineage is: Ruby Jewel Claiborn Sparks, Susan Mary Reneau Claiborn, John Mulkey Reneau, Isaac Tipton, John, Charles Reno/Reneau, John Reno, Lewis Jr., Lewis Sr.

We extend our sympathy...

Our condolences to the family of Beulah M. Reneau Percy, who passed away at age 95 in Murfreesboro, TN on September 16, 2005. A service was held on September 20 at the Woodfin Memorial Chapel, with burial in Roselawn Memorial Gardens in Murfreesboro.

Beulah was born in Ida, KY to Ulysses Simpson Grant Reneau and Cora Luttrell Reneau, the fourth of six children in the family. Beulah married R. L. Percy. He passed away March 1, 2002. Beulah was a member of Lock's United Methodist Church, active in the congregation as a Sunday School teacher. In addition to being a loving wife and mother, Beulah worked as a school teacher, merchant, factory worker, and also took over the WPA School program in Clinton County, KY under President Roosevelt.

Beulah was predeceased by her siblings: Richard Carvin Reneau, Elizabeth Pauline Reneau Vickery, and Raymond Bohring Reneau. She is survived by daughter Betty Jo Rossier, of Elkhart, IN; sons James M. Percy of The Villages, FL, Danny G. Percy, of Murfreesboro, and Richard D. Margaret's Reneau lineage is: Lillie Belle Depp Matthews, Mariba Elizabeth Reneau Depp, Isaac Tipton Reneau, John, Charles Reneau/Reno, John Reno, Lewis Jr., Lewis Sr.

Margaret was Mother of the Year in 1966 and received the Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Citizen Award in 1971. She was devoted to the Glasgow High School Scottish Band and a designer and seamstress of its Scottish kilts. She was an avid sports fan, and supported all Glasgow Scottie Teams and the University of Kentucky Wildcats. Margaret was well known for her generosity, love, wit, sense of humor, and recollections of family history, and especially her ability to tell a good story.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Robert Oliver Alexander; three brothers and their wives, B.F. and Bess Matthews, John T. and Oma Matthews and James and Dorothy Matthews; an infant sister, Gladys Christine Matthews; a cousin, Fanny Depp Koellner; two grandchildren, Pryntha Raye and Robert Aaron Wilson; and a great-grandchild.

Survivors include her children, Pryntha Alexander Hardenbergh and her husband, Murray, and Patricia Alexander Nielsen and her husband, Chris, all of Lexington, Robert M. Alexander and his wife, Zara, and Judy Alexander Stokes and her husband, Bob, all of Glasgow, Anna Margaret Alexander Wilson and her husband, Bobby Day, of Nicholasville, and Bobby Chapman and his wife, Joan, of Dalton, Ga.; her grandchildren, Meg Travis and her husband, Bill, John T. Alexander and his wife, Holly, Ashley Donovan and her husband, Derek, Andrea Nielsen, Erik Nielsen and his wife, Cristy, Nathan Day Wilson and his wife, Janice, Adam Wilson and his wife, Delena, Shana Langley and her husband, Michael, Allison Stokes, Russell Chapman and his wife, Michelle, and Rob Chapman and his wife, Jackie; and great-grandchildren, Miller and Caroline Travis, Tipton, Sims and Depp Alexander, Clarissa, Patricia and Matthew Wilson, Alexander Langley and McKenzie and Nicholas Chapman; and several nieces and nephews.

Margaret was a member of the First Christian Church in Glasgow. Services were held December 28, 2005 at the church, with burial in Glasgow Municipal Cemetery. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to First Christian Church, 1100 N. Race St., Glasgow KY 42141.

We offer our sympathy to the family of Marjean Reneau, who passed away at age 79, on January 11, 2006 at the Community Care Center in Anthony, KS.

Marjean Reneau was born July 29, 1926, in Manchester, OK to Jesse Robert Reneau and Jennie Snow Reneau. Marjean was a resident of Anthony, and worked as a secretary for the State Department of Transportation for many years, retiring from that position. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Anthony.

Marjean's Reneau lineage is: Jesse Robert Reneau, Samuel Russell, William Michael, John Reno, John David, John, Lewis Jr., Lewis Sr.

Survivors include: a brother, Robert Earl Reneau, Alva, OK; and a sister, Betty Lou Reneau Hodge, Toledo, OH. She was preceded in death by a sister, Elizabeth Reneau Perry.

Graveside service were held on January 14, 2006 at the Forest Park Cemetery, Anthony, with the Revs. Warren Stanton and Teddy Cook presiding.

Memorials may be sent to First Baptist Church of Anthony, in care of the Prairie Rose Funeral Home, 602 E. Main, Anthony, KS 67003.

Jonathan Mulkey Reneau
sold beautiful Family
Bibles like the one he has

Jonathan Mulkey Reneau was the eighth child born to John Reno and Elizabeth Thurman Reno. He was born on July 9, 1822 in Albany, Clinton County, Kentucky. He was named after the Reverend Jonathan Mulkey who began preaching in South Carolina, and in 1780, he, William Reneau, [eldest son of John Reno and Susanna Thorn Reno] and others from Carolina and Virginia migrated to East Tennessee and organized a church on Boones Creek, subsequently known as Buffalo Ridge.

Jonathan Mulkey Reneau joined older siblings: Isaac Tipton Reneau, born December 9, 1805; Joseph Wright Reneau, born August 28, 1807; John Pleasant Thurman Reno, born October 3, 1809; Nathan Washington Reneau, born December 19, 1812; Nathaniel Smith Reneau, born July 10, 1814; Elizabeth Wakefield Reneau, born November 30, 1816; and Sarah A. "Sallie" Reneau, born May 1, 1819.

Jonathan was also an older brother to two siblings: William T. Reneau, born June 11, 1824; and Berry Jordan Reneau, born December 5, 1827.

Jonathan Reneau married Elizabeth Ann Hill on April 4, 1844. Elizabeth Ann was born June 10, 1826 in Tennessee. The following children were born to the union: Sarah Eola, born January 11, 1845; John White, born April 12, 1846; Annie Elizabeth, born November 8, 1847; Nathaniel Scott, born March 10, 1849; Lavina, born April 23, 1851; Nancy S., born February 22, 1853; Isabel A., born December 20, 1854; Millard Filmore, born July 20, 1857; Permelia Caroline, born January 21, 1859; Mary Catherine, born March 11, 1861; Joseph Granville, born February 28, 1863; J.
